AT SEATTLE

v.)	ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF
)	TIME OF REMAINING BRIEFING
MICHAEL J. ASTRUE,)	SCHEDULE
Commissioner of Social Security,) Defendant.)

_____)

Defendant filed the parties' first stipulation for extension of time (Dkt. 13), requesting a 49-day extension of the due date in which to file his responsive brief. This request is significantly longer than the 30-day extensions the Court normally grants. However, this is the first extension requested by the parties, and in this instance the longer period can be granted without jeopardizing the Court's ability to timely provide a report and recommendation to the district judge.

Having considered the stipulation, and the entire docket in the case, the Court hereby GRANTS an extension of the remaining briefing schedule as follows:

Defendant's Responsive Brief: January 28, 2011

Plaintiff's optional Reply Brief: February 11, 2011

In light of the longer than usual extension, the parties should take note that no further extensions will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances.

DATED this 15th day of December, 2010.

Mary Alice Theiler
United States Magistrate Judge
